Aybüke Ayhan – Personal Logs for Code Racers

ID: 22301960

20-22 November

- Working on the designing and development of diverse question types and matching classes
- Enhance the functionality of the Question classes
- Mainly completing paperwork of asked documents.

6 December

- Revising the question implementations of some classes to achieve clarity and improve usability of the game
- Contributing on the placement of the questions on GamePanel and mechanics of the question database

7 December

- Gathering the question classes into a single class to maintain the control of the classes

- Helping with paperwork on project documents.

10-15 December

- Completing implementation of question classes and fixing minor problems occurred while playing
- Enhance the seamless pass of game screens when players open the game and use different functionalities
- Contribute to the development of GUI components of other screens
- Contribution on storing the questions that are incorrectly answered 18 December

- Finishing the implementation of the class that stores incorrectly answered questions to be shown in the review screen
- Assisted in the development of the GUI of review screen and the end of game screen